Based on the “101 Ways to Teach Children Social Skills” program developed by The Bureau for At-Risk Youth, the Children’s Social Skills Building Group offered by ABA Connections offers a systematic and comprehensive approach to teaching important social skills. Each month will cover a different social domain and sessions will be facilitated by trained ABA therapists.

Monthly Topics:

Communicating
Nonverbal Communication
Being a Part of a Group
Expressing Your Feelings
Caring About Yourself and Others
Problem Solving
Listening
Standing Up for Yourself
Managing Conflict

Registration is available on a weekly, monthly, or full-program basis. Prices vary based on type of registration. Please contact Anna Sadler at asadler@abaconnections.ca or (613) 224-8476 for more information.
